"Hearts for Homecoming"

This year's Homecoming festivities began with a dance February 16th. The King candidates — Vic Daniel, Bill Dunbar, Larry Frails, Tom Mulherin, Charles Turner, and David Widener — and Queen candidates — Ginger Andrews, Elise Cave, Jenifer Fortson, Victoria Goode, Robin Henderson, Jenny Hursman, and Tracey Stephens — were introduced.

Other activities included an ice cream party, bon fire, acrobatic/comedy act, basketball games, and certainly our Homecoming Party the 22nd.

Crowned as Homecoming King and Queen 1985 were Larry Frails and Robin Henderson.

"AS YOU LIKE IT"

"LIVING TOGETHER"

Elizabethan "Fayre"

On April 20, 1985, the Department of Languages and Literature held its second Elizabethan "Fayre" in the secluded beauty of the Quadrangle. That particular date was selected because it was the closest Saturday to Shakespeare's birthday and St. George's feast day (England's patron saint), both of which fall on April 23. Also, the present sovereign's birthday is April 21.

The general atmosphere at the "fayre" was one of authenticity and diversion. Colorful heraldic banners fluttered in the breeze as people dressed as Elizabethan lords, ladies, and peasants roamed about the grounds. Bright pavilions were everywhere. In one, a blacksmith worked noisily at his anvil. In another, various crafts were displayed for sale. A palmist was busy amazing wide-eyed curiosity-seekers with her uncanny skills. A delightful fifteen-minute Hamlet was presented twice during the afternoon. Songs were sung, and a minstrel strolled about.

The Society for Creative Anachronism was on hand to thrill the crowd with their jousting and mock battles as the repeated thuds of sword on shield echoed through the Quadrangle. Various period games were available — London, a forerunner of shuffleboard, Pitch Penny, Stool Ball, and a forerunner of volleyball were just a few. Later in the day certain members of the Department of Languages and Literature performed Elizabethan folk dances.

At the food pavilion guests could refresh themselves with apple juice, roast beef sandwiches, cheeses, apples, fruit tarts, and bread pudding.

The "fayre" was a tremendous success and a perfect way to honor England's most eminent playwright and her greatest queen.

SLEEPS ON THE JOB SCREWS STUDENTS OFF THE JOB

BEAR BUSTERS!

Due to major controversies concerning student activities, the secret United Front for Lethargy called in the BEAR BUSTERS to investigate A.C. Undercover, one-by-one, the BEARS became Jaguars and infiltrated every department. They seemed to be typical students.

AUGSTA COLEGE

Who Did They Call?

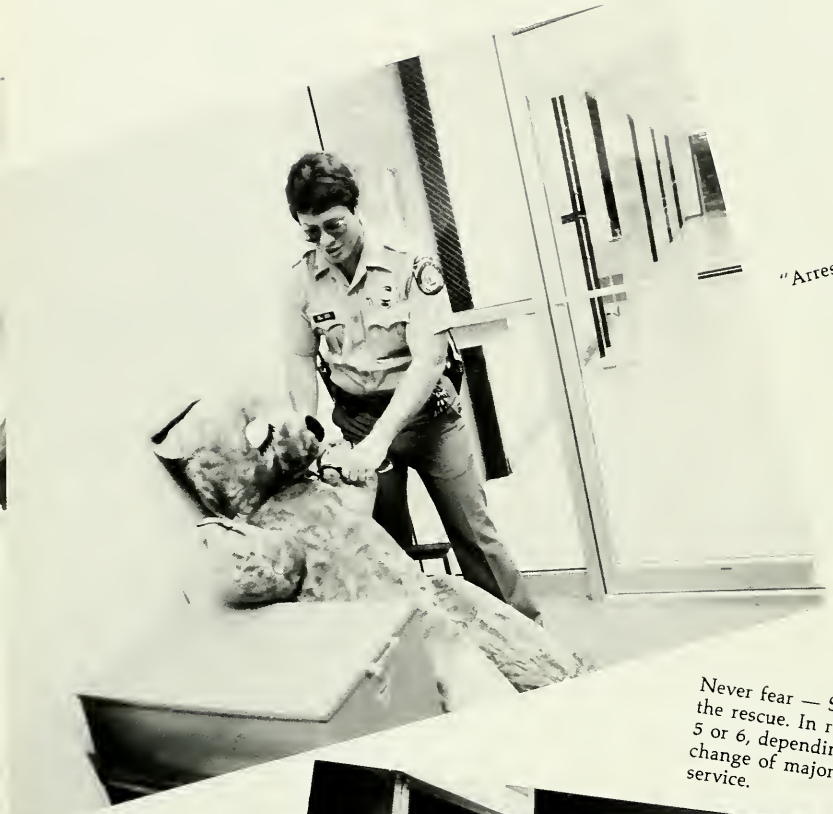
Bear Busters!

I Can't Hear You!

Even the White Columns and "Bell Ringer" staffs, as well as Student Government, were fooled.

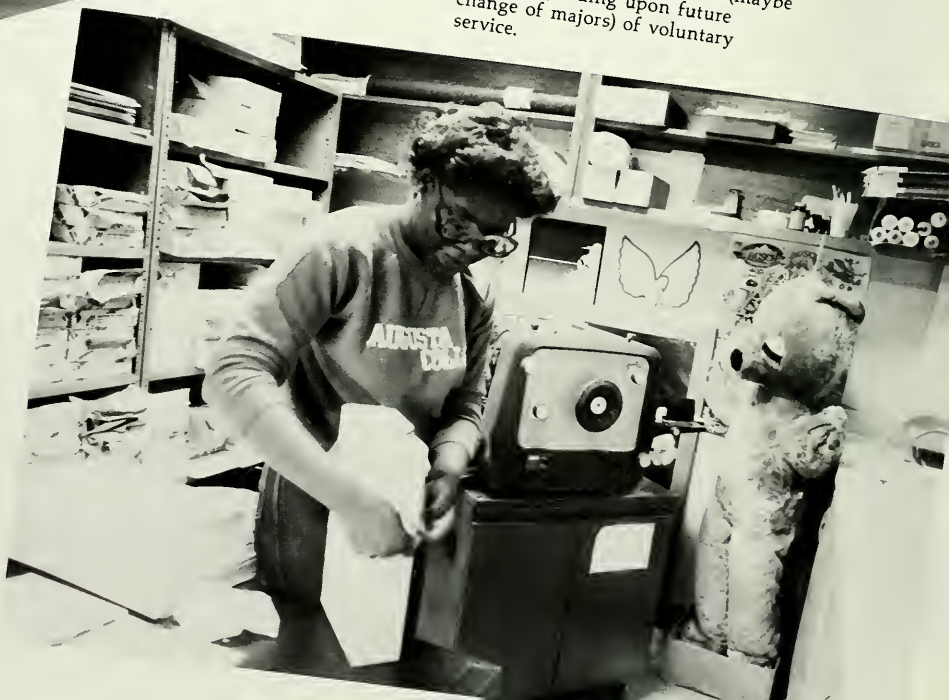
EXCUSE ME?

Accident . . .
Who you gon call?
PUBLIC SAFETY!



"Arrest for 'disturbing the floor?'"

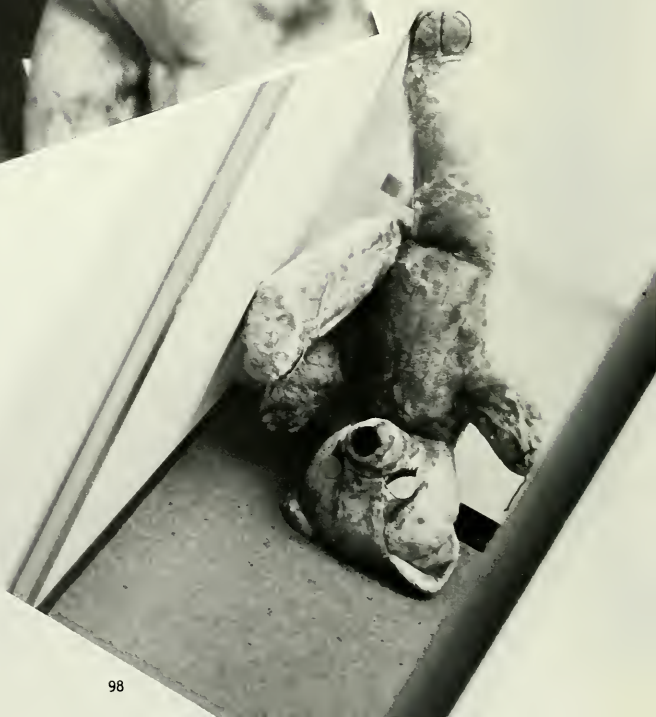
Never fear — Student Activities to the rescue. In return, 4 years (maybe 5 or 6, depending upon future change of majors) of voluntary service.



"Yes, mam."

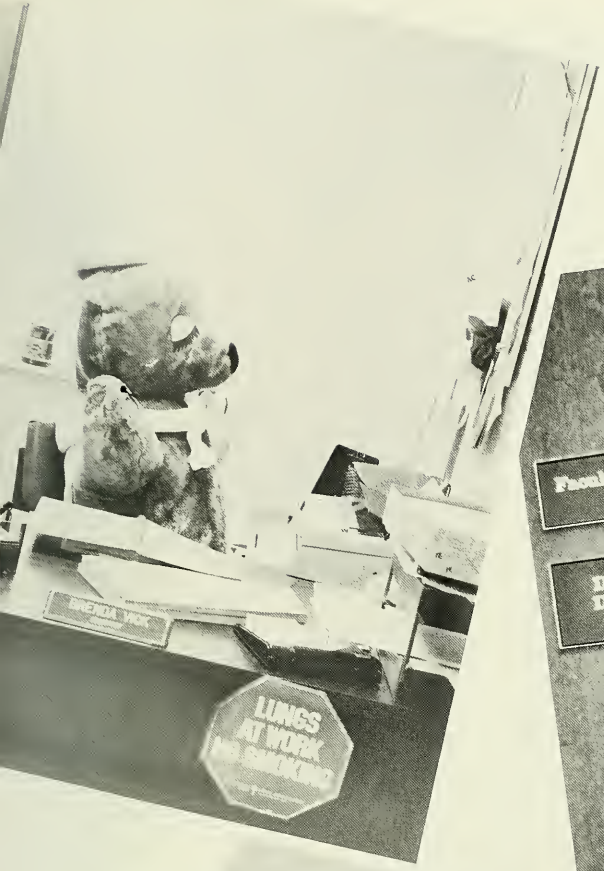
Meanwhile, the quarter progressed. Inevitably, the ENG 101 final drew near.

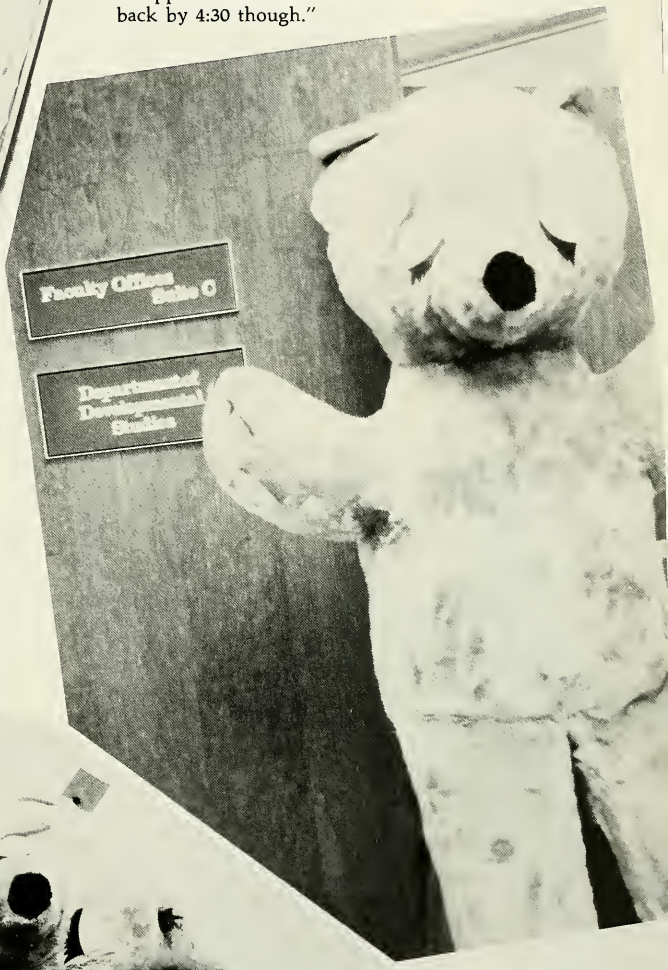
Before



After

The effects seemed permanent. One BEAR thought that she was a secretary, "I'm leaving for lunch, then the bank, then an appointment. I should be back by 4:30 though."





Another thought that he was sort of a statue, "Give me your ignorant, give me your stupid, give me your . . ."

When all seemed hopeless, Cousin It counseled the poor BEARS.

This BEAR chills out by day and does unmentionables by early evening and night.

One day, a BEAR's true identity was discovered. He was staked and left to die.

Miraculously, a student discovered him and set him free.

As a result, the BEAR BUSTERS came forward and reported that their findings contradicted the beliefs of the United Front for Lethargy.

The Front then disbanded, and its support transferred to GA.

A.C. is once again safe!

The BEARS are now in advertising.

During this past summer, Dr. Sandarg sponsored a guided tour to Paris and Spain, which was a total success. Everyone had a great time (dodging highjackers and bombs). It was a very educational experience that no one will forget. Seeing the Monalisa and the Venus de Milo in books can never equal seeing these masterpieces in person. During the four-day stay in Paris, nothing was left undone. The Eiffel Tower was conquered, and visits to the Louvre, Notre Dame, and Versailles, and a night boat ride down the river Seine kept everyone busy. After ransacking Paris, the tour moved down through Spain stopping at Madrid, Cordoba, Granada, Sevilla and, finally, the beach of Torremolinos on the Mediterrean Sea. The language barrier was not a problem since Dr. Sandarg speaks fluent French, Spanish, and sign language and most of the natives speak passable English. The two-week trip makes you appreciate the french and spanish cultures moreover, it makes you appreciate all of the conveniences and freedoms you have waiting for you in the United States of America.

Think
of your future
with C&S

The Citizens and Southern National Bank
Augusta, Georgia

The 1984-85 academic year was truly an eventful one, particularly in politics, sports, world news, fashion, and entertainment.

Reagan's smashing victory over Mondale-Ferraro highlighted the political scene as Geraldine Ferraro's bid to become the nation's first woman Vice-President failed.

In sports, Bernard Langer became the first German (and only the third foreigner) to win the Masters. Tennis great John McEnroe thrilled Augusta spectators when he visited the Garden City to participate in an exhibition match with Vitas Gerualitis. Brigham Young was the NCAA football champion, while the basketball crown went to Villanova. Florida ended years of frustration against Georgia, beating them soundly, then going on to capture their first SEC title ever (revoked later because of recruting violations).

In the news the big story was terrorism, highjackings, and hostages, as the West was forced repeatedly to confront Shiite demands. Of the forty hostages, thirty-nine were returned safely.

In fashion, the male earring fad appeared sporadically on the A.C. campus, and occasionally a "Punk" or "New Wave" hairdo (Partially shaved heads and/or dyed hair) would emerge. In the spring, knee-length, floral-design shorts were popular.

In music, Prince dominated the Grammys, but the biggest record of the year was probably "We are the World" by U.S.A. for Africa, a conglomerate of American musicians raising money to combat starvation in Ethiopia. In movies, Sally Field won her second Oscar, and in television, it was the Bill Cosby Show that headed the ratings throughout most of the season. The "Dynasty" Cult continued to grow, and in the season's finale, reflected the world's political scene by presenting a terrorist-staged massacre at a wedding.

A BASIC FACT . . .

"No skill = no future."

Editor's Note:

Here is your yearbook — enjoy!

My staff and I thank John May for writing copy for the Elizabethan "Fayre" and closing section, and Vicky Spratlin for contributing many photographs (in the absence of Valerie — of course). In addition, I thank my staff for their dedication and camaraderie.

I feel that a tradition has begun at Augusta College — a tradition of student, not faculty, publications. As an alumnus, I hope to see this continue. However, this will only be possible if you — the students — support both White Columns and the "Bell Ringer".

Sincerely,

Leonard Bates
